

CASH WINDFALL FOR CHRISTMAS

Walker Group is offering house hunters the perfect early Christmas present - £5,000 cash back on properties purchased before Christmas at its Churchill Court development in Broomhill in the heart of Glasgow's west end.

The Christmas treat will reward house hunters for buying their dream home early at this popular development of apartments, which are ready for immediate occupation.

"With Christmas fast approaching our offer will ensure that house hunters will reap the benefit of securing their dream property. I can think no better way to celebrate Christmas than with the purchase of a beautiful new home and cash to spend during the festive season," said Kareen Talman, Walker Group.

Featuring a total of 29 properties, Churchill Court offers a mix of different styles of two bedroom apartments which are luxuriously designed to meet the needs of modern homebuyers. Particulars include an open plan lounge / dining room; two spacious bedrooms including an en-suite bathroom off the master bedroom; a generous sized bathroom with co-ordinating ceramic tiling and a fully fitted kitchen, with top of the range integrated appliances and scope for a breakfasting / dining area. Each property is situated within well-tended grounds and is complete with an allocated parking bays.

Located off Churchill Drive, Churchill Court is situated in one of Glasgow's most desirable suburbs.

This innovative and stylish new build development offers all the appeal of contemporary living through its luxurious design and superb location.
