

Selling made easy with Walker Group

Walker Group is giving homebuyers a helping hand with the launch of its Option 90 scheme at the company's Meadow Parks development, The Whins in Tranent.

The Assisted Move Option 90 scheme offers homebuyers the opportunity to buy their home without the stress of selling their existing property, as Walker Group will take on the responsibility of this for a 90 day period if customers purchase a new home at The Whins.

In addition to this, the company will also cover the costs of all selling fees during the 90 days period including, advertising and estate agents costs (excluding legal fees). If at the end of the 90 days the property has not been sold, the owners are given the option to surrender the arrangement with Walker Group.

"Buying and selling a home is one of the biggest financial commitments most people will make in their life. The Assisted Move Option 90 offers a flexible way to help relieve the additional worry of trying to sell your existing home as you are considering moving into your new house," said Sandy Casey, Sales Manager, Walker Group.

The Whins represents the first phase of the company's substantial development Meadow Parks in Tranent. Comprising of 76 properties with a choice of 11 different house styles, the phase offers four and five bedroom options with prices ranging from £194,000. Ideal properties for the family buyer, this development provides an opportunity to become part of the growing community of Meadow Park, which on completion will comprise of 800 new homes.

The sales office is open Thursday to Monday from 1pm to 5pm and further information is available by contacting Agnes Bannerman, on 01875 619 748 or from Walker Group's head office on 01506 413 101.
