WALKER GROUP TARGETS HOME BUYERS AT SHERWOOD

Walker Group is offering free tickets to see blockbuster Robin Hood for the first 20 visitors to its Sherwood showhome in Bonnyrigg in June.

Visitors to this charming development of four and five bedroom executive villas will receive a Vue cinema gift voucher, which can be used to see the new movie starring Russell Crowe, Cate Blanchett and Matthew MacFadyen.

The incentive is part of a new summer campaign of sizzling offers at selected developments across Scotland.

Sandy Casey, Sales and Marketing Director with Walker Group, said: "Life has been a bit serious in recent months with one of the coldest winters on record, the General Election and volcanic ash. We wanted to inject a bit of fun back into buying a house with great offers designed to put a smile back on our customers faces, including huge savings on properties.

"Sherwood like its namesake Sherwood Forest is a very green and leafy development, with lots of space for junior Robin and Maid Marions to roam about."

A new phase of luxury executive villas has recently been launched at Sherwood, which is located just nine miles from Edinburgh and offers a safe and attractive environment for families.

These include the stunning Nethan five bedroom villa, the largest housetype built by Walker Group at this development. Covering close to 2,000 sq ft, this impressive property features a showpiece bay windowed lounge, a lovely family room, dining room, kitchen, utility and cloakroom.

Upstairs are five bedrooms, two of which have ensembles and a large family bathroom. A double garage completes the property which is on the market for £370,000.

Also available is a five bedroom, three public room Ness villa for £335,000, a saving of £34,000 and a stunning four bedroom Elliot housetype which features three generously-proportioned public rooms and is available for £342,000.

All properties come with integral appliances, wardrobes and vanity units as standard.

Thoughtful landscaping and pretty green areas give Sherwood a quaint and rural ambience, whilst the impressive homes beautifully blend modern convenience with elegant architecture.

Sandy Casey, Sales and Marketing Director at Walker Group, said: "Sherwood is a fantastic location for people who work in Edinburgh as it is close to the city bypass."

Bonnyrigg represents a superb choice for the whole family, being in close proximity to Edinburgh yet also just a short drive from the sweeping golf courses and beautiful coastline that this area is renowned for.
